Ann Horton brings a wealth of experience, a passion for education, and a strong commitment to community service to her role as a valued member of our board. Throughout her career in education, Ann held various positions within Kalamazoo Public Schools (KPS), including high school and faculty residential facility roles. She also made significant contributions to Collier County Public Schools (CCPS) as an Exceptional Students Education (ESE) Specialist, working with inclusion and intellectual disability classrooms. She has also served as an educational trainer for an esteemed educational software company.

In addition to Child's Path, Ann is actively engaged in several community organizations, including Greater Naples Leadership, The League Club, Shelter Guild, and Women in Naples Giving Support.

Ann holds a Bachelor's of Social Studies with a minor in Elementary Education, as well as a Master's of Special Education from Western Michigan University (WMU), establishing a strong educational foundation.
