Bill Mahoney brings both a business perspective and an educational background to his role as a board member at Child's Path.

Mahoney has worked with CarMax since 1999, serving as Location General Manager of Naples since 2013. Previously, he spent a decade teaching video production at Pinellas County Schools.

His wife was an early childhood educator for 20 years, and the couple has always been drawn to assist and volunteer with preschools and K-12 schools. Mahoney earned an associate's degree in computer science from Tampa College

In his spare time, he plays on a bowling league and loves to travel, especially cruises. Bill and his wife hope to travel to every state in the country, visiting popular landmarks and national parks.
