

MERCY LAGMAY ABRAMS, MD

CHILD'S PATH BOARD MEMBER
SECRETARY

Dr. Mercy Abrams brings a long-standing commitment to improving children's lives and making a positive impact in the community. She is a retired pediatric anesthesiologist with over 25 years of experience in both academic medicine and private practice in the New York metro area.

Mercy received her MD from Mount Sinai School of Medicine and completed residency and subspecialty training in pediatric anesthesiology at Mount Sinai Hospital.

During her career, she made a global impact through medical missions, offering essential services to children in developing countries. In addition to Child's Path, Mercy is a board member of the Perna-Rose Foundation for Hope and actively involved in Champions for Learning as a mentor in the Take Stock in Children program, where she serves on several committees.

Since 2015, Mercy has been a full-time resident of Naples. Outside of community involvement, she enjoys floral design, gardening, tennis, golf, and boating.
