

RUSSELL BECKNER

---

CHILD'S PATH BOARD CHAIR

As senior vice president market leader for the PNC Private BankSM, Russ oversees a team of professionals striving to achieve the highest level of client satisfaction. Through Russ's leadership and commitment, he helps ensure the client benefits from a full complement of investment, trust, financial planning and private banking services to help them achieve their financial goals.

Prior to his role, he came to PNC in 2014 to open the Investment Center for PNC Investments that covered the Southeast U.S. He was then Regional Manager for PNC Bank in Southwest Florida, covering all Retail Bank locations from Sun City Center, through Sarasota down to Naples. He was responsible for growing the retail assets and revenues through consumer banking, business banking, lending and wealth & investment management.

He was also with Charles Schwab Corporation for 16 years holding various roles from Regional Manager for Schwab Wealth covering the Great Lakes Region, Branch Manager, and National Sales and Advice Training Director.

Russ graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in criminal justice from Indiana University Bloomington.